

Robinson Wonder Man of Big League Ball

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Manager Wilbert Robinson, who for the second time in five years has led the Brooklyn National league club's players successfully as pennant winners to be contestants for the world series championship struggle, was born at Hudson, Mass., 55 years ago. For 36 years Robinson has been identified with the national game. Away back in 1884 he was catcher for the Haverhill, Massachusetts, team, for which at that time John Kinley Tener was one of the club's pitchers. During 1884 and the following season Tener and Robinson proved to be a very effective battery. Many years later Pitcher Tener was elected governor of Pennsylvania and afterwards became the chief executive of the National Baseball league.

In 1886 Robinson joined the Philadelphia Athletics of the American association, and in his first major league game as catcher, scored the only run made by his team, which was beaten 4 to 1 by the New York Metropolitans.

Robinson's fame as a catcher and batter as well as a fast baserunner is closely allied with Baltimore, where he spent many years of his baseball career. Back in the 90's with McGraw, Jennings, Keeler, Kelley and others, Robinson established an enviable reputation as a great player when Ned Hanlon's famous Orioles won the championship three years in succession.

After McGraw became manager of the New York Giants in 1902 Robinson remained in Baltimore and played for several seasons with the International league club there.

In the development of pitchers Robinson was singularly successful and for several seasons he assisted his old friend McGraw in this department. He made several trips to the spring training camps of the Giants after he had ceased to be an active player. As a pitcher's coach with the New York Nationals he brought out Elnor Marquard, who contributed his share to the winning of three successive pennants in 1911, 1912 and 1913.

Robinson began his management of the Brooklyn team in 1914 and two years later made them champions of their league. He persuaded President Ebbets to secure the services of Marquard and Marmorek, when these pitchers were on their way to the minor leagues and they are still with him now that he has landed his club for the second time as a big factor in the world series.

Never a martinet with his men.

GOLD ORE ALMOST USED ON STREETS

(By Associated Press)
ANACONDA, Mont., Oct. 2.—The famed celestial streets of gold came near having a modest counterpart in Montana recently when by the merest chance a carload of gold ore was saved from utilization as paving material for a road between Butte and Anaconda.

The ore had been dumped from the car and was about to be sent through the concrete mixer as lime rock when men sent by the owner to trace the strayed shipment discovered it. It was valued at eight to nine thousand dollars.

YOUNG EAGLE FOUND IN SAN FRANCISCO

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Down-town street canyons of a big city recently were found by a young eagle to be different from the gorges of the bird's native mountains. The bird, apparently fresh from the hills, became lost in the maze of streets here and flew into a pool room, where it perched on a table and made a vicious but futile fight against capture. The owner of the pool room threw a sack over the bird's head and said he intended to give it to the Golden Gate Park zoo. The eagle weighed six pounds and was of gray and brown coloring.

Platinum has rarely been found in single masses larger than a pigeon's egg.

Americans Chosen for Place in Hall of Fame

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Balloting closed yesterday for the quinquennial election of 20 additional famous American men and 10 famous American women to the Hall of Fame. There are 294 celebrities nominated for that honor. The result of the election will not be made public until November 1.

The Hall of Fame, a national institution, is located on the heights of New York university, overlooking the Hudson and Harlem rivers. It was organized 20 years ago with a gift of $100,000, which has since been increased to $250,000, the money to be used in building a museum and colonnade 500 feet long and to contain 150 panels for memorial bronze tablets. Fifty were to be inscribed in 1900 and at the close of every five years thereafter five additional panels were to be placed, so that the entire number would be completed by A. D. 2000. Only 56 in all, however, have been elected since the first votes were cast 20 years ago.

The ballots in the present election, which were mailed last July to 102 electors in various parts of the United States, college presidents, historians, professors, scientists, authors, editors, statesmen, supreme court judges, business men, publicists and others, contain the names of 177 men and 27 women, of whom 111 men and 23 women were hold-over nominations from previous elections. The initials "M. J. F." alongside the names of 20 men and one woman indicate that in a preliminary public nomination last May a majority of a special group of electors designated them as being "more justly famous." This makes them eligible to election by a majority vote and all others must have two-thirds of the vote cast. In the absence of Dr. Robert Underwood Johnson, now United States ambassador to Italy, the balloting is in charge of the acting director of the Hall of Fame, Mrs. William Vanamee, of this city.

CALIFORNIAN HUNTS WITH BOW AND ARROW

BERKELEY, Cal., Oct. 2.—Hunting with bow and arrow is more sportsmanlike than with a gun, Dr. Saxton T. Pope, of San Francisco, student of archery, said in a recent talk before University of California students here.

"With a gun all you have to do is to pull the trigger and the gun does the rest, while with the bow and arrow it is all up to you," the doctor declared.

Dr. Pope, in his talk, told of his

(By Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Establishment of a National Institute of Laundering will be considered at the thirty-ninth annual convention of the Laundryowners' National association, to be held here October 11-16.

The institute, it is planned, will be built near Chicago and will include a building of sufficient size to provide a convention hall and business quarters for the association's officers.

A model laundry, the last word in laundry efficiency, also will be constructed as a part of the institute, according to present plans. The model laundry will be conducted as a commercial enterprise by the association.

Governor William D. Stephens and Mayor James Rolph, Jr., are expected to deliver addresses of welcome. Two special trains are expected to bring delegates to the convention. Approximately 1500 are expected.
